It is our great honor and pleasure to welcome you all to Poznań for the XXIII International Congress of Historical Sciences!

Poznań and its surrounding areas create unique opportunities for discussing history. It is here that, over a thousand years ago, the Polish State began. The city's convenient location - on the crossroads of Europe's most important traffic routes – has for centuries been making Poznań a vital meeting spot of cultures and a place of international dialogue.

We shall do our best to make the Congress not only an important scientific event but also an unforgettable experience!
